

In addition, students will begin to understand how non-profit organizations operate, and they will present a final group project to □ parents on the last day of the camp.